ITINERARY

Get into the original tunnels of one of the most important potash salt mines in Europe until 1990. Marvel at the immense Salt Mountain and feel like a true miner travelling back in time into the salt basin. Put on a helmet and get ready to explore the old and new galleries of the site. Visit one of the most important medieval fortress in Catalonia, the Cardona Castle. Build in the IX century by order of Guifré el Pilós (Wilfred the Hairy), the construction is a perfect example of Romanesque style architecture. Learn about the vast significance of this Count actions with your local guide and the historical importance of this landmark.
